What is C-TPAT?

C-TPAT is a voluntary government-business initiative to build cooperative relationships that strengthen and improve overall international supply chain and U.S. border security. C-TPAT recognizes that U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) can provide the highest level of cargo security only through close cooperation with the ultimate owners of the international supply chain such as importers, carriers, consolidators, licensed customs brokers, and manufacturers. Through this initiative, CBP is asking businesses to ensure the integrity of their security practices and communicate and verify the security guidelines of their business partners within the supply chain.

DFAR Statement:

AVX Corporation has recently received several inquiries in regards to its stance on the standards set forth in DFAR 252.225.7014, which requires certain specialty metal alloys to be melted in the U.S. or another qualifying country. Upon careful internal investigation, it has been determined that AVX Corporation is indeed in compliance with the requirements of DFAR 252.225.7014. Please note that there are no current plans to adjust the standard AVX C of C to state the aforementioned compliance.
